If you have indicated that you will be applying for the Knight-Hennessy, US/Canada Rhodes, Schwarzman, or Yenching Academy fellowships, please check the box below acknowledging that you are aware of the internal institutional endorsement process conducted in Yale-NUS College in August 2017 for 2018-2019 academic year programs.

I acknowledge this requirement of institutional endorsement for these awards.

If you have indicated that you will be applying for the Rhodes Scholarship, please check the box below acknowledging that you recognize the Rhodes policy prohibiting review or conversation surrounding the personal statement. All Rhodes applicants must write and revise their personal statement without support from any other individual.

I acknowledge this policy and will not discuss or have reviewers of my personal statement for the Rhodes application.

CIPE encourages students collaborate with a close faculty mentor during the drafting process. Please indicate below the name of the faculty member you plan to work with on the drafting process (excluding Rhodes essays). Do note that CIPE will also reach out to the individual faculty listed below to notify them that you have indicated this preference.
