CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL & PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Greetings from CIPE,

Welcome back! Here at CIPE, the New Year brings some pretty big announcements, which we are excited to share with you. At the top of our list: great news with respect to opportunities at Yale: we are offering new and expanded options for our students at one of our founding institutions.

First, we are thrilled that our study abroad places at Yale will no longer be limited to Semester 2 but will include spots in Semester 1. This gives students who wish to be on campus in Sem 2 the ability to apply for a spot at Yale. Second, we are launching a summer research programme with Yale faculty in STEM subjects; designed for students who wish to pursue advanced work in science and mathematics, this is wonderful opportunity to work in a lab doing ground-breaking research. Third, CIPE will sponsor qualified students for the prestigious Yale Summer Institute in Bioethics. Finally, with our colleagues in New Haven, we have created a new summer programme at Yale specifically for Yale-NUS. Modeled on the iconic Brady Johnson Program in Grand Strategy at Yale, this intensive course will focus on developing the analytic skills necessary to understand the contemporary world and tackle global problems. It will then do a deep dive on some of those such as the environment, public health, trade, and demographic challenges. Aimed at rising sophomore and juniors, it will feature numerous Yale faculty, practitioners, guest speakers and out of the classroom learning opportunities.

For information about all of these and more opportunities, continue reading for deadlines and upcoming info sessions.

This is the time of year when many of you will start thinking about summer employment opportunities or jobs after graduation. Our career services team has you covered with all kinds of events and assistance. Whether it's hearing from campus recruiters across industries, hosting professional development lunches, helping you write a killer cover letter or figure out what good a LinkedIn profile can do for you, they have the answers. And now, get rewarded for attending events with the Take Flight with CIPE program. Scroll down for details.

For others, the summer is a time to do a deep dive into research. At Yale-NUS, we want to provide students at different stages the chance to conduct research with faculty members and on their own. New programmes at Yale and Harvard in the sciences offer unparalleled opportunities for students thinking about pursuing graduate work while the Summer Research Programme offers students across disciplines summer funding.

Finally, we are pleased to announce an internship opportunity for a team of students over Spring Break. Working at the Oak Spring Garden Foundation in Virginia, near Washington, DC, interns will pioneer a project that aims to capture the social and economic history of a fascinating place. See below for more details.

Cheers,
Dean Trisha Craig

FOR ALL STUDENTS:

Lunchtime Chat with Mr. Edwin Seah (Microsoft University Recruiter)

Career planning can be a mysterious and overwhelming task early in your career, but it doesn't have to be. Edwin is a campus recruiter at Microsoft and aims to engage with the best and brightest university talent for full-time and internship positions in APAC. In this lunchtime session, he will share specific examples of stellar resumes and tools you can leverage on LinkedIn even as a student. Edwin loves empowering people to be the best versions of themselves through dialogues, coaching and facilitation, and is happy to answer any questions you have about the job/internship application process.

Students of all years, majors, and career interests are welcome, and lunch will be provided. You are encouraged to come with a copy of your resume, and a LinkedIn profile. To RSVP and if you have any specific questions you would like Edwin to know about in advance, please email Nayoung nayoung.won@yale-nus.edu.sg.

The History of Singapore: Screening & Dialogue with Discovery Network

In less than 200 years, the nation of Singapore grew from mangrove to a bustling metropolis, and has since achieved arguably the greatest economic and social miracle in modern history. How did this small island with no natural resources and a tiny native population rise to wield such disproportionate economic strength? 'The History of Singapore' is a journey of the evolution of Singapore, produced by the Discovery Network, involving key historians like our very own Professor Tan Tai Yong.

Join us for a short excerpt of the series, followed by a dialogue with the team involved in its making. The producer will share about the processes and artistic choices behind-the-scenes to produce the documentary, and the challenges of constructing a narrative around Singapore History. Students of all years and majors are welcome to attend. Dinner will be provided. Please come in business attire and RSVP on Simplicity.

Date: Monday, 22 January 2018

Spring Break Internship in Social History and the Study of Place, Virginia USA

Working with the Oak Spring Garden Foundation \(OSGF\) in Virginia near Washington, DC, a team of up to 8 interns will conduct preliminary research on contemporary and historical sites, events and people associated with the area surrounding OSGF. Making use of archival records, maps, interviews, site visits, and field trips, they will begin gathering and writing entries and stories of place. In addition, interns will document their work and create a workplan for the summer of 2018 when the project will continue. Two summer internships will be available and spring break participants are encouraged to apply.

The internship is open to all students but those majoring in or intending to major in Anthropology, Arts and Humanities, Economics (especially with an interest in economic history), Environmental Studies, History, and Urban Studies may find it particularly useful for their development.

Yale-NUS Student Investment Group (YNSIG): Singapore Asset Management Conference (SAMC) 2018

In partnership with J.P. Morgan, the SAMC 2018 is a conference that aims to provide an avenue for students to gain deeper insights into the Asset and Wealth Management industry. SAMC 2018 is the only large-scale Asset and Wealth Management conference in Singapore catering to the most talented undergraduates from the region. We not only aim to fill the dearth in knowledge about the industry but also serve as a recruiting platform for Asset and Wealth Management firms in Singapore. Participants will gain exposure to new industry trends not covered in previous iterations and be given opportunities to build strong personal connections with like-minded peers and leading industry practitioners during a networking lunch session. For exceptional participants, there will also be a private dinner event with J.P. Morgan senior management. Individuals interested in attending the SAMC 2018 will be required to apply by Monday, 15 February 2018. All applications will be assessed based on level of study, grade point average and a demonstrated interest in Asset and Wealth Management. Successful candidates will be required to pay a compulsory participation fee within 3 days of acceptance to confirm their spot. For more information and how to apply, please visit SAMC.sg for more details.

Yale-NUS Registrants are eligible for special pricing of $39 (U.P. $55) by indicating “YNC” on the registration form's Remarks Section.

Summer Travel Fellowship 2018 Application Open

CIPE's Travel Fellowship offers the opportunity to create your own journey, a purposeful exploration of a new horizon or academic pursuit. The fellowship should be centred around answering an academic question, and this learning should be shared with the Yale-NUS Community in a meaningful way. End products have ranged from documentaries to art exhibitions to academic articles. The application for the Travel Fellowship is now open and the deadline closes February 23, 2018. To apply, you must create a Travel Fellowship proposal and submit it to Annette Wu <annette.wu@yale-nus.edu.sg> by the deadline. Click here for details on the application process, resources for building a compelling proposal and examples of past Travel Fellowship proposals. Please contact Annette if you are interested in this fellowship and would like to talk over potential fellowship ideas.

Take Flight with CIPE (TFC) Programme

Every semester, CIPE organises a variety of events, workshops, programmes and information sessions to help students with their professional, academic, and personal development. With this in mind, CIPE is pleased to pilot a tiered incentive scheme to encourage higher levels of participation by students and this scheme is based on the number of events that the student has attended during each academic semester. For more information on our rewards and how to participate in the TFC programme, please refer here.

Yale-NUS Student Name Cards

A good first impression is important and having a name card enhances it. It will also facilitate follow ups after the meeting. If you are interested in having your own name cards, please fill in the Yale-NUS Student Namecard Request Form and submit it to the vendor directly. The printing process takes approximately 3 working days and an email notification will be sent to inform you once the name cards are ready for collection.

Career Resources

If you are looking for tips on how to approach the job hunt or improve your networking skills, the Career Services has recently launched a series of whiteboard videos on topics ranging from “Getting Started on the Job Search Process” to “Making the Most of Coffee Chats” on our webpage here.

Check Our Website for the Full List!

There are many more events happening off-campus including case competitions, please check <https://cipe.yale-nus.edu.sg/career-services/student/career-events/> regularly for the full list of opportunities.
