CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL & PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

CIPE Newsletter

Greetings from CIPE,

This is our last newsletter of the year and we hope you are ending the term with the satisfaction that comes from having tried new things, met some of your goals and deepened your connection to friends and faculty.

We look forward to seeing you today at the Summer Opportunities Fair in the Elm walkway. Come learn about what's on offer. We know that over the break many of you might think about applications for CIPE and other non Yale-NUS opportunities. While we have no more rapid resume review sessions for the semester, please do reach out to your CIPE advisor or any of us if you would like help with your resume or general advice about applications.

While our programming is winding down, there are still some notable events you might want to check out, including the Getting Published event by the Writers' Center at the Elm Common Lounge this evening, or the chat on Ethical Leadership with Dr. Audrey Chia on the 20th. Also, while it's not a CIPE event, I'm looking forward to Everyone Has Their Story: Conversations on Contemporary Art, this Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Cendana Rector's Common. It will be a good opportunity for those interested in a career in the arts to better understand the arts landscape in Singapore and to hear about the inaugural Bangkok Biennale that has just opened in Thailand as well as the Invisible Photographer Asia platform.

We recently learned that a technical glitch prevented some of you from receiving the newsletter last month. If you wish to see back issues, they are here: <https://cipe.yale-nus.edu.sg/newsletters/>

All of us at CIPE wish you a good end of term, a relaxing and joy-filled break and a happy new year. We look forward to seeing you back here in January and to rolling out more new programs and opportunities.

Cheers,
Dean Trisha Craig

For All Students

Summer Opportunities Fair

Calling all Students! Interested in a CIPE opportunity this summer, but don't know where to start? Come to our Summer Opportunities Fair TODAY! from 11:30am-1:30pm (in front of Elm Courtyard). You will be able to find out more about available opportunities and CIPE staff will be on hand to answer any questions you may have. We have many exciting programs for you all, so we hope to see you there!

Date: Wednesday, 14 November
Time: 11:30am - 1:30pm
Venue: In front of Elm Courtyard

Getting Published: A Conversation with Epigram (Writers' Centre Event)

The Writers' Centre is co-hosting an event with the Lit Collective on November 14th entitled "Getting Published: A Conversation with Epigram." It will feature an editor and author from the local publisher Epigram. They will discuss what publishers look for in a manuscript, what the publishing process is like and how editors and authors work together. RSVP here.

Date: Wednesday, 14 November
Time: 7:00pm - 8:30pm
Venue: Elm Common Lounge

[New date] Ethical Leadership chat with Dr. Audrey Chia

Chat with Audrey about ethical leadership, social innovation or responsible business over lunch. Audrey facilitates Leadership Ethics, offered under the Leadership Certificate, and will run 2 workshops around ethical leadership next semester.

Audrey is Associate Professor of Management & Organization at the NUS Business School and holds a joint appointment at the Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health. Using leadership and change as theoretical foundations, she studies how social and health problems can be addressed by social entrepreneurship and innovative philanthropy. She is interested in multi-sector collaborations that address social and health challenges and her health-related research includes studies on improving health at work and evaluation of public-private collaboration for integrated care.

RSVP by 19 Nov: Simplicity
Date: Tuesday, 20 November
Time: 12 noon - 1:00pm
Venue: Saga Private Dining Hall

Social Impact Fellowship and Service in the City Grants

Have a social impact or service idea that you'd like to run? CIPE supports student-led social impact and service initiatives through seed funding ranging from SGD2,000 to SGD10,000.

For more details, visit: Social Impact Fellowship (for summer initiatives), or Service in the City (for local, service-oriented initiatives). Please contact Yock Theng via yocktheng.tan@yale-nus.edu.sg with questions.

Invitation to collaborate - Common Good Week 2019

To raise visibility of social impact effort and pathways, CIPE would like to dedicate 14 Feb to 20 Feb to skill-building for the common good. If you are interested in pitching an initiative, or collaborating with us during that week, please email Yock Theng yocktheng.tan@yale-nus.edu.sg or Jessica jessica.lim@yale-nus.edu.sg.

Singapore-MIT Undergraduate Research Fellowship (SMURF)

The Singapore-MIT Undergraduate Research Fellowship enables undergraduates to spend up to eight contiguous weeks in Singapore participating in a research project at a MIT Faculty Member's Singapore laboratory. As a fellowship recipient, you will have the opportunity to interact with students and faculty from diverse backgrounds. A SMART researcher will be assigned to you to mentor you throughout the attachment. To view the list of projects, see their web site. Applications close 25 January.

Yale-NUS Student Name Cards

A good first impression is important and having a name card enhances it. It will also facilitate follow ups after the meeting. If you are interested in having your own name cards, please fill in the Yale-NUS Student Namecard Request Form and submit it to the vendor directly. The printing process takes approximately 3 working days and an email notification will be sent to inform you once the name cards are ready for collection.

Career Resources

If you are looking for tips on how to approach the job hunt or improve your networking skills, the Career Services has recently launched a series of whiteboard videos on topics ranging from “Getting Started on the Job Search Process” to “Making the Most of Coffee Chats” on our webpage here.

Check Our Website for the Full List!

There are many more events happening off-campus including case competitions, please check <https://cipe.yale-nus.edu.sg/career-services/student/career-events/> regularly for the full list of opportunities.

For Class of 2019

Language and Culture program in Spain

Some of you are thinking of applying for fellowships that allow you to spend a year teaching, such as JET or Princeton in Asia. Courtesy of Prof Lage-Otero, here is another one that allows you to spend a year in Spain teaching English. Open to the citizens of numerous countries, Singaporeans are now eligible. See more here.

Carnegie Endowment for International Peace James C. Gaither Junior Fellows Program 2019

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace is preparing for the 2019 application season of its James C. Gaither Junior Fellows Program. From CEIP: “Each year, through the James C. Gaither Junior Fellows program, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace offers approximately 12-14 one-year fellowships to uniquely qualified graduating seniors and individuals who have graduated during the past academic year. They are selected from a pool of nominees nominated by several hundred participating universities and colleges. James C. Gaither Junior Fellows work as research assistants to Carnegie’s senior scholars.”

This program requires that you possess work authorization in the United States; the program does not sponsor visas. Deadline: 23:59, Sunday, 18 November 2018 Apply Here

NYU Shanghai Writing & Speaking Fellowship

The NYU in Shanghai Writing & Speaking Fellowship is designed for graduating college seniors and young professionals who have recently completed their academic study programs. Fellows serve as English language writing and speaking tutors for undergraduates at NYU Shanghai, the third degree-granting campus in NYU's global network, joining NYU in New York and NYU Abu Dhabi. Opened in 2013, NYU Shanghai is a world-class liberal arts and sciences research university with half of the student body drawn from China and half from over 60 other countries.

The primary responsibility of the Fellow is to provide academic tutoring and support. Fellows are immersed in a pioneering model of international higher education. Fellows are also required to complete an independent writing project over the course of the academic year, with mentorship from a member of the NYU Shanghai Faculty.

An information session will be held Tuesday, December 4, 8:30am (China time); to get access to the session, sign up no later than 24 hours in advance and will receive the link to join before the session. The first wave of applications closes 4 January 2019.

For Class of 2019 & 2020

Graduate School Advising

If you are a final-year student applying to graduate school this year, or a third-year student planning to apply next year, please contact Zhana Sandeva at zhana.sandeva@yale-nus.edu.sg for advising support on planning out and going through the application process.

For Class of 2020, 2021 & 2022

Applications for Summer Scholarships

Applications for the Summer Arts, Academic, Language, Spanish and Chinese Language scholarships for summer 2019 are open until 5:00pm on 23 November 2018 (Friday). Read more about the programs and apply for the scholarships through the CIPE Summer Study Abroad webpage. Note that apart from applying to the CIPE scholarships, students are also responsible for applying to the programs directly.

For Class of 2022

Future Global Leaders Fellowship

The Future Global Leaders Fellowship is awarded to some of the world's most exceptional first-generation college students who aspire to become members of the Fortis Society. Applicants must be first-year university students and must fit the following eligibility criteria:

- First-Generation or Low-Income University Student – students who do not have a family history of higher education, or who come from a low-income background.

- Track Record of Academic Excellence – throughout high school and during the first months of the current school year.
- Proven Leadership Abilities – through self-started initiatives and ventures, or leadership in their schools or communities.

Applications are open now and are due 31 January. For questions, contact paul.wilt@yale-nus.edu.sg.

On-Campus Opportunities

On-Campus Opportunities

If you would like to do paid part-time work helping faculty with their research or administrative departments with their various projects and operations, consider becoming a Student Associate. Opportunities are posted on Symplicity as they become available, so check back often for updates. For more information, visit THIS LINK.

Service opportunities through Yale-NUS Compact - Open Borders: Stories have no Boundaries

A storytelling event open to all with a story to tell, whether migrant or Singaporean, writer or non-writer. For our 2nd iteration of Open Borders, we have storytellers such as Rolinda Onates Espanola, Co-editor of Call and Response (together with Zakir Hossain Khokan and Joshua Ip), and Monir Ahmad, editor of “Migrant Tales”, amongst many others. Questions? Contact Jay at jay.ong@u.yale-nus.edu.sg.

Date: Sunday, 18 November

Date: 3:30pm - 5:00pm

Venue: Saga Common Lounge, Yale-NUS College

Off-Campus Opportunities

Service opportunities through Yale-NUS Compact:

1. 5-week programme with Rainbow Centre

ComPact will be organising a 5-week arts introduction programme with Rainbow Centre, introducing the students to the power of expression through performing and visual arts. We are looking for volunteers to facilitate the programmes. If you have an interest in theatre, dance, visual arts or music and have a heart to serve the special needs community, this programme is meant for you! 2-way transport will be provided. Please contact Jay at jay.ong@u.yale-nus.edu.sg.

Date: Every Wednesday (Nov: 21, 28 & Dec: 5, 12, 19)

Time: 3:00pm to 4:00pm

Venue: Rainbow Centre, 501 Margaret Drive, Singapore 149306

2. Volunteering Opportunity with The Therapy Room (TTR)

Are you a Psychology major looking to apply what you’ve learnt in class in a meaningful real-life context? Or are you a confused freshperson wanting to learn more about Psychology before committing to it as a major? Fret not. The Therapy Room (TTR) is organising a December Camp for Children with Special Needs and we are looking for student volunteers to help facilitate the programme.

Date: 5-7 December 2018

Time: 8:00am - 6:00pm

Venue: Marymount Convent School, 20 Marymount Rd, Singapore 297754

Student volunteers are required to commit to all three days, and one day prior for a pre-camp briefing. Students who are majoring or intending to major in Psychology are highly preferred. To indicate your interest, please go to <https://tinyurl.com/deccamp18>, or contact Jay at jay.ong@u.yale-nus.edu.sg.

What We're Reading

The winter and summer breaks are a time when we at CIPE like to catch up on reading – new books that we're dying to read or classics that we haven't yet had the chance to dive into. Here is a list we love and will be pulling things from – both to read and for gift-giving: The Chronicle of Higher Education's most influential books of the past 20 years. You might have read some of them as part of a course but all worth reading for pleasure. Another author we'll be reading is Amitav Ghosh, perhaps Sea of Poppies (2008) or The Glass Palace (2000), in anticipation of his visit here next semester. Finally, even closer to home is the Singapore Book Awards' Book of the Year, Robert Kuok's, A Memoir.
