Greetings from CIPE,

Welcome back! I hope you had a peaceful and restful holiday. It’s so much fun at the start of term to see the community back together and looking forward to the term ahead. It is especially nice to have those of you who have been studying abroad or on leave back, and of course it is such a pleasure to welcome our visiting students. This semester we are delighted to have visitors not just from our long-term partners but from institutions who have never sent any students before including Yale, Oberlin, American University and Pompeu Fabra. Getting to know the visiting students is a wonderful opportunity not just to meet new friends but learn about these other institutions.

At CIPE, we are rolling out some new programming that we are excited about. The first is our Pathways program, which focuses on helping students craft individual paths towards careers where there is often no clear cut or singular track to entry. We’ll offer suggestions of how to build relevant skills and contact through extracurricular activities, courses, mentoring, internships, fellowships, CIPE programming and more. We are piloting our first Pathway this semester in Journalism and as part of that, are happy to co-sponsor the talk with Jina Moore on careers in journalism next Thursday (24/1).

We are also in the process of developing more hybrid opportunities for students that may combine elements of classroom learning, LABs, internships and group project work. The rationale is to help deepen knowledge and skill acquisition, and to make greater connections and translations between academic and more applied skills. Two examples of these opportunities can be found below: the Urban Resilience summer program in Chennai combines coursework, bootcamp and field work. The spring break trip to the Oak Spring Garden Foundation focuses on research and may include a follow-up summer internship and March short course.

This issue of the newsletter has a ton of information about upcoming opportunities for summer and their deadlines. To talk to CIPE program managers about many of these, stop by the Summer Opportunities Fair next Wednesday. And to help you with professional opportunities, we also have many upcoming workshops, mini-courses and activities so read on to see which ones may be right for you.

Cheers,
Dean Trisha Craig
For All Students

Life Skills Lunches
CIPE’s Life Skills Lunches return this semester on Thursdays, with the first two lunches in Week 1 and Week 2. Join the Leadership and Global Citizenship team as we present practical ideas you can implement immediately, all over a lunch we’ll provide.

Life Skills Lunch 1: Productivity—Time and Task Management
If you think you don’t have time for this session, then you need this session! Where does all the time go? Are you spending time doing the things that are important to you? Time and task management skills allow people to live more productive and less stressful lives. We will explore tools that help...but more importantly, the habits and human practices which make the tools effective.

Date: Thursday, 17 January (Today!)
Time: 12:00 noon (but flexible; you will provide your intended attendance time in the registration survey)
Venue: Classroom 15
Register: HERE or via this link: bit.ly/CIPELifeSkills_timetaskmgt

Life Skills Lunch 2: Writing for Personal Statements
Good writing can help you clinch a competitive program, a dream job, a graduate program spot, or a prestigious fellowship. Join this workshop and learn how to write personal statements that will be read and remembered. We will look at writing samples and practice writing about formative experiences.

Date: Thursday, 24 January (Week 2)
Time: 12:00 noon (but flexible; you will provide your intended attendance time in the registration survey)
Venue: Classroom 15
Register: HERE or via this link: bit.ly/CIPELifeSkills_personalstatement

Rapid Resume Reviews
CIPE Career Services will be in the Elm Dining Hall during lunchtime every Friday to provide feedback on student resumes. Bring a hard copy of your resume to strengthen it before submitting for future applications! RSVP is not required.

Date: Friday, 18 & 25 January, 1, 8, 15 & 22 February
Time: 12:00 noon - 1:00pm
Venue: Elm Dining Hall

Lunchtime Sharing Session with OH! Open House: Walking with the Arts, Heritage & Community
OH! Open House started in 2009 as an art walk that brought art out of museums and galleries. It evolved from there, challenging perceptions about where art can and cannot exist. By 2014, OH! had grown beyond an art walk into a non-profit art organisation. Today, OH! redefines everyday spaces through art by challenging artists to create new work responding directly to an existing space – a specific neighbourhood, or history, or even a home.

Join us for a lunchtime session with their Community Manager, Ms Aletheia Tan, as she shares more about her personal career journey and the work that she’s been involved with at OH!

Date: Monday, 21 January
Time: 12:00 noon - 1:00pm
Venue: Saga Private Dining Room (Dress code: Smart Casual)
RSVP: Symplcity
“Check Out” These Local Startups at the Human Library!
Instead of checking out books from the library, why not spend the evening “checking out” these startups who will be joining us at our Human Library? Come and find out more about their work here in Singapore (and even regionally). Bring your questions, as well as get inspired by their career journey – ask them anything!

This will be an interactive session, so please bring your questions and be ready to share with our guests about your interests. The Human Library will allow you to rotate among the 6 startups for approximately 3-4 times throughout the hour, where you will be “checking out” a startup for 15-20 minutes at a time.

Dinner will be served at 6:00pm and the Human Library event will officially begin at 6:30pm.

Date: Tuesday, 22 January
Time: 6:00pm - 8:00pm
Venue: Performance Hall Foyer
RSVP: Symplicity

Internships 101
How can you land the internship you want? How many internships should you apply to? How should you evaluate opportunities? Internships are one of the many exciting adventures that students pursue during the summer vacation period, and like all opportunities, are best if approached with deliberate goals in mind. In this session, the CIPE Career Services team will share tips and tricks on how to approach the internship application process, whether you’re going into your last summer or your first summer break at Yale-NUS.

Students are encouraged to come with burning questions for this interactive event. Light refreshments will be provided. For more information about internships, please visit HERE or this link: www.bit.ly/cipeintern.

Date: Wednesday, 23 January
Time: 4:00pm - 5:30pm
Venue: Classroom 15
RSVP: Symplicity

Careers in Journalism: A Lunchtime Talk with Jina Moore
Are you curious about a career in journalism? Join us for a lunchtime Q&A session with Jina Moore, freelance journalist, as she talks about her career journey. Ms. Moore has reported from more than 30 countries around the world, for magazines, newspapers and radio. Based for the last decade in East Africa, she was most recently the East Africa Bureau Chief for the New York Times. She has also written for The New Yorker, The Atlantic, the Boston Review, Newsweek, Foreign Policy, the Christian Science Monitor, and BBC's The World. As the Global Women's Rights reporter and senior foreign correspondent at BuzzFeed News, Ms. Moore covered Ebola in West Africa, the kidnapping by Boko Haram of Nigeria’s “Chibok girls,” bride trafficking in Cambodia, gender-based violence against refugees fleeing through Europe, and more.

Her work has received many honors, including the Elizabeth Neuffer Gold Medal, from the United Nations Correspondents Association, the Mirror Award from the SI Newhouse School of Journalism, and a Fulbright Fellowship. A 2009 Ochberg Fellow of the Dart Center on Journalism and Trauma at Columbia University, Ms. Moore now directs a regional initiative to support East African reporters in trauma journalism.

This event is co-sponsored by the Writers’ Centre, CIPE, the Literature major, the Dean of Faculty's Office and the Humanities division. Lunch will be provided.

Date: Thursday, 24 January
Time: 12 noon - 1:00pm
Seniors Sharing Session: Management Consulting (in collaboration with Yale-NUS Consulting Group (YNCG))

Are you thinking about pursuing an internship or career in management consulting? Do you have questions about the tedious application process up ahead? Come join our seniors from Class 2019 as they share about their experiences and how they discovered their passion for management consulting, including tips on how to tackle the hiring process and prepare ahead of time! This event is open to all students but we strongly encourage interested students from Class 2020 and 2021 to attend this session, as the application season will commence in August 2019. Light refreshments will be provided.

Date: Thursday, 24 January
Time: 7:00pm - 8:30pm
Venue: Saga Common Lounge
RSVP: Symplicity

Lunchtime Sharing Session: Navigating a career journey from Consulting to Civil Service

Join us for a lunchtime session with Mr Rahul Daswani as he shares about his career journey from management consulting at McKinsey to leading the Futures team on strategic resource allocation at the Singapore Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA). Mr Daswani’s career journey has taken him across multiple locations including South East Asia, Papua New Guinea and Ethiopia where he worked on various projects involving Education, Community Development and Climate Change. He has a BSE in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Michigan and a Master in Public Policy, Political and Economic Development from the Harvard Kennedy School of Government.

Date: Monday, 28 January
Time: 12:00 noon - 1:00pm
Venue: Cendana Private Dining Room (Dress code: Smart Casual)
RSVP: Symplicity

How to Ace any Interview?

Interviews can be a daunting and nerve-wrecking process but you don’t have to do it alone! If you wish to improve your interview skills and learn tips on how to navigate this challenging process, then this is the workshop for you. This interactive workshop aims to walk you through guidelines for preparation, and give you opportunities to practice ways to respond to common and curveball interview questions. Light refreshments will be provided.

Date: Monday, 28 January
Time: 7:00pm - 9:00pm
Venue: Classroom 15
RSVP: Symplicity

Acing a Technical Interview

Not sure how to go about preparing for technical interviews? Have questions about jobs concerning traditional programming, data science and machine learning?

Your alumni – Sean Saito, Kai Yi Yong, Pratyush More and Aaron Ong will spend the evening sharing on how you can better prepare yourself for technical interviews. The evening will begin with a general overview for technical interviews, with the latter half breaking off into two groups: Software Engineering/Development and Data Science. Please come ready with your questions!

Food will not be provided for this event, please have your dinners beforehand.

Date: Tuesday, 29 January
Time: 7:00pm - 9:00pm
Venue: Programme Room 1
RSVP: Symplicity

Lunchtime Sharing Session with Duke-NUS/Singhealth
Join representative(s) from Duke-NUS who will be sharing more on research internship opportunities centering on health systems strengthening, aging, non-communicable disease epidemiology, obesity and clinical practice improvement.

Students may grab lunch from the Saga Dining Hall and take it into the Saga Private Dining Room.

Date: Wednesday, 30 January
Time: 12:00 noon - 1:30pm
Venue: Saga Private Dining Room (Dress code: Smart Casual)
RSVP: Symplicity

CIPE Professional Headshots
Professional headshots taken by a Yale-NUS student photographer will be available on 30 Jan from 2-4pm at Classroom 16. Students who would like to update their photos for LinkedIn profiles/resumes are encouraged to wear collared shirts. RSVP is not required.

Date: Wednesday, 30 January
Time: 2:00pm - 4:00pm
Venue: Classroom 16

Problem Solving Crash Course on Analysis, Structuring, & Visual Thinking: The Essential Consulting Toolkit
What does it mean to have an analytical mindset in the workplace? What are the tools one can leverage to analyse, structure, and visualise information?

In this crash course, students will learn about major analytical and structuring tools such as matrices, decision trees, SCQA, and 1-pagers. Led by external facilitators from Kwantum Leap, this workshop will involve short exercises and case studies to practice essential analytical tools like grouping and sorting, constructing timelines, and creating frameworks to explain data. This is an essential consulting toolkit, regardless of what pathway you decide to pursue upon graduation.

Students of all years, majors, and career interests are welcome. Dinner will be provided for all who register.

Date: Wednesday, 30 January
Time: 4:00pm - 8:00pm
Venue: Classroom 15
RSVP: Symplicity

Leadership Certificate
The Leadership Certificate offers a range of opportunities for students to clarify personal values and purpose; develop and practice critical skills and improve performance in individual and team roles. This semester, a series of workshops centered around effective and ethical leadership are offered:
Time, Date and Venue | Workshop Name & Instructor
--- | ---
21 Jan (Mon), 4:00 to 6:30pm Classroom 15 | Leadership within Organisations Dr. Audrey Chia
12 Feb (Tues), 4:00 to 6:00pm TBD | Developing Voice in Leadership Dr. Audrey Chia
20 Feb (Wed), 4:30 to 6:30pm Classroom 10 | Peak Performance and Sabotage Dr. Jonathan Marshall
23(Sat) to 24 Feb(Sun), full-day Off-Campus | Leadership Camp Dr. Jonathan Marshall and camp facilitators
6 Apr (Sat), 1:30 to 5:30pm Classroom 15 | Decision Bootcamp *NEW (featuring poker simulation) Dr. Jonathan Marshall and guest trainer Mr. Balazs Fogoly

The first two workshops are focused on organizational leadership and influence, as well as developing one’s voice for constructive and engaged leadership. They will be conducted by Dr. Audrey Chia, who holds a joint appointment at both the NUS Business School, and Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health; and who has extensive experience around organizational leadership, social change and sustainability. These sessions can be taken on their own, or together with (3 others that will be offered next semester) for deeper exploration and dexterity around ethical leadership.

The other 3 workshops (Peak Performance, Leadership Camp and Decision Bootcamp) will be conducted by Dr. Jonathan Marshall, a trained psychotherapist, executive coach and leadership trainer. Jonathan is also our instructor for Leadership Fundamentals. While Peak Performance and Decision Bootcamp are newly offered over an afternoon; the Leadership Camp is in its 2nd run, and will run over a weekend. The camp is intended to facilitate improvements to personal and team performance through exploring one’s strengths and capabilities, working out of one’s comfort zone, as well as giving and receiving feedback from multiple stakeholders (such as peer and coach). Past participants have found the Camp a good complement to Leadership Fundamentals, and a valuable opportunity to hone their leadership skills.

Attendance for each workshop will be capped at 25 participants. For more details, or to enrol, please head over to Symplicity.

Please contact Yock Theng via yocktheng.tan@yale-nus.edu.sg if you have any questions about these workshops, or the Leadership Certificate.

Social Impact Fellowship and Service in the City Grants

Have a social impact or service idea that you’d like to run? CIPE supports student-led social impact and service initiatives through seed funding ranging from SGD2,000 to SGD10,000.

For more details, visit: Social Impact Fellowship (for summer initiatives), or Service in the City (for local, service-oriented initiatives). Please contact Yock Theng yocktheng.tan@yale-nus.edu.sg with questions.

Common Good Week 2019

To raise visibility of social impact effort and pathways, CIPE would like to feature student-led projects and dedicate 18 to 20 February to skill-building for the common good. Student-led projects will be featured online, and through the Common Good Drive that will take place between 12 noon to 1:30pm on 20 February along the Elm Walkway. If you are interested in featuring your work, please contact Yock Theng yocktheng.tan@yale-nus.edu.sg with the title: Common Good Drive - <Name of Project>.

If you would like to collaborate with CIPE, or feature your event during the week, please email Yock Theng yocktheng.tan@yale-nus.edu.sg or Jessica jessica.lim@yale-nus.edu.sg.
Take Flight with CIPE Programme
Every semester, CIPE organises a variety of events, workshops, programmes and information sessions to help students with their professional, academic, and personal development. With this in mind, CIPE is pleased to launch an incentive scheme to encourage higher levels of participation by students. This scheme is based on the number of events that each student has attended during each academic semester. For more information on our rewards and how to participate in TFC, please refer here.

Yale-NUS Student Name Cards
A good first impression is important and having a name card enhances it. It will also facilitate follow ups after the meeting. If you are interested in having your own name cards, please fill in the Yale-NUS Student Namecard Request Form and submit it to the vendor directly. The printing process takes approximately 3 working days and an email notification will be sent to inform you once the name cards are ready for collection.

Career Resources
If you are looking for tips on how to approach the job hunt or improve your networking skills, the Career Services has recently launched a series of whiteboard videos on topics ranging from “Getting Started on the Job Search Process” to “Making the Most of Coffee Chats” on our webpage here.

Check Our Website for the Full List!
There are many more events happening off-campus including case competitions, please check https://cipe.yale-nus.edu.sg/career-services/student/career-events/ regularly for the full list of opportunities.

Spring Break Opportunities
Learning Across Boundaries: Al-Andalus, Andalucía and National Identity in Southern Spain
Location: Cordoba and Granada, Spain
Dates: 23 Feb - 3 Mar 2019
Faculty: Professor Eduardo Lage-Otero and Professor Amparo Espadas
Co-pay: S$1,200

Participants in this LAB will explore how the Moorish conquest of and rule over the Iberian peninsula for seven centuries shaped the region of Andalucía and the country as a whole. They will study its architecture and urban design, its land use and agricultural crops, and its social and religious challenges. They will visit Moorish seats of power in Cordoba and Granada. By combining a rich historical and cultural understanding of the region with exposure to current challenges faced by Andalucía and Spain, students will develop their own understanding of complex issues (e.g., migration, national identity, historical narratives, religious tolerance, fanaticism) and come up with answers to important questions such as: what does Al-Andalus mean for modern Spain? How do we define national identity? How do we integrate various communities into a unified whole? Is religious coexistence possible in modern Spain? What should be preserved and who decides? Students will work individually or in pairs on a short research-based project that will be presented to their peers at Yale-NUS.

For more details on the LAB and how to apply, please visit HERE. The application deadline is Wednesday 23rd January at 5.00pm SGT.
Oak Spring Garden Foundation Internship
Location: Oak Spring Garden Foundation, Virginia, USA
Dates: 22 Feb (evening) – 3 Mar 2019
Faculty: Dean Trisha Craig and Dean Ronald Milne

For this spring break trip, which is an internship/LAB hybrid, we return to the beautiful Oak Spring Garden Foundation (OSGF) in Virginia near Washington, DC, where Yale-NUS is collaborating with Oak Spring in a multiyear project to create a gazetteer, similar to a dictionary of place, focusing on contemporary and historical sites, events and people associated with the area surrounding OSGF. Making use of archival records, maps, interviews, site visits, and field trips, interns will gathering information and write entries and stories of place. In addition, interns and project leaders will spend a day discussing the digital humanities and its potential applications and meet with the leadership of the famed Dumbarton Oaks and the Yale Digital Humanities LAB. Six places are available on the spring break trip. Additionally, two summer internships will be available at Oak Spring and one at the Yale Digital Humanities Lab in New Haven to further work on digital aspects of the gazetteer, and these will ideally be filled by participants on the spring break trip. Students will be expected to do some research and writing prior to the trip.

The internship is open to all students but those majoring in or intending to major in Anthropology, Arts and Humanities, Economics (especially with an interest in economic history), Environmental Studies, History, and Urban Studies may find it particularly useful for their development as will students with an interest in the Digital Humanities. Special consideration will be given to students who plan to apply for one of the summer internships.

To apply: see full details on Symplicity (keyword: oak spring)
Application deadline: Wednesday, 23 January 2019 but applications reviewed on rolling basis so early submission encouraged.

For Class of 2019 & 2020

Offer of Scholarships from Azerbaijan
The MOE has shared a scholarship offer by the Government of Azerbaijan for courses offered by Azerbaijani universities, including preparatory, undergraduate, graduate and doctoral courses. The scholarship covers tuition fees, international flight (annual), monthly allowance, medical insurance, visa and registration costs. Details of the scholarship and the application form can be found HERE or via this link: http://www.aida.az/scholarship.

If you are keen to apply for this scholarship, please let Nilanjana Pal Nilanjana.pal@yale-nus.edu.sg from CIPE know about your interest. Yale-NUS candidates will have to send the applications to Ms Stella Yu of MOE Stella_YU@moe.gov.sg by 31 January 2019. The Ministry will collate all applications and select the four strongest candidates based on the quality of the applications (e.g. candidate’s interest in the subject area, evidence of cognitive capacity and soft skills to complete the course in a foreign country) for submission.

For Class of 2020 & 2021

New Summer Program: Urban Resilience in Chennai
The Urban Resilience Program is a new summer programme for undergraduate and graduate students from multiple disciplines focused on complex, global problems facing cities. This is an opportunity to collaborate with students from University of British Columbia (UBC), Yale-NUS College, Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Chennai, University of Cambridge, and Tecnológico de Monterrey, conducting research and project work to address resilience challenges posed by the Chief Resilience Officer of the City of Chennai in India. The program consists of 4 mandatory components (a 6 week online course with a concurrent internship, 1 week bootcamp and 2 weeks of field work in Chennai). Details about the program can be found HERE, or on the CIPE website under “Summer Opportunities”. The application deadline is 01 February 2019 and materials must be submitted through Symplicity.

We anticipate that students will have numerous questions about the program and how best to position their application. We’ve organized an info-session with Prof Valentina Zuin who will be leading the project from Yale-NUS. Please attend the lunch session (details below) to learn more about this innovative new opportunity. Please RSVP on Symplicity to avoid food wastage.

Date: Tuesday, 29 January
Time: 12 noon - 1:00pm
Venue: Cendana College Office Conference Room (RC3-01-07C)
Register: Symplicity

For Class of 2020, 2021 & 2022

Summer Opportunities Fair
Calling all Students! Interested in a CIPE opportunity this summer, but don’t know where to start? Come to our Summer Opportunities Fair happening on 23 January from 11:30am-1:30pm (in front of Elm Courtyard). You will be able to find out more about available opportunities and CIPE staff will be on hand to answer any questions you may have. We have many exciting programs for you all, so we hope to see you there!

Date: Wednesday, 23 January
Time: 11:30am - 1:30pm
Venue: In front of Elm Courtyard

Deciding on Summer Opportunities - FAQs
As you hear back from different summer opportunities, please remember that CIPE positions are competitive and intended to be accessible to as many students as possible. Our policy of sponsoring only one experience per student per summer is designed to encourage students to make the most of their opportunities and focus on the quality of that experience rather than encourage a higher quantity of shorter duration experiences. That said, there may be cases where a student engaged in a long-term summer opportunity may also be eligible for a week-long opportunity (such as Social Impact Bootcamp or a LAB).

There may even be occasions where we will need to make decisions with incomplete information. Most of our programs have varying deadlines and you will be accepted to some before others. Accepting a place in one programme typically requires withdrawing your application to another that is still pending a decision. If you find yourself in a position of having to decide with incomplete information, please visit our Summer Opportunities FAQs first. You can also talk to your CIPE advisor or another CIPE staff member to weigh the pros and cons of the situation. Facing these decisions now will help you make more serious difficult decisions later in life.

Summer Study at Yale: 01 Feb 2019 Deadline
Interested in studying at Yale this summer? We are excited to be offering the Yale-NUS Summer Institute in Global Strategy and Leadership for its second year. In addition, we have up to 15 total spots for Yale Summer Session (YSS) in New Haven/Abroad. The applications for all Yale summer programs will open in mid-January, and will close on 1st February. Please feel free to contact Graham Link graham.link@yale-nus.edu.sg for any questions.

Self-Sourced Internship Funding: 01 Feb 2019 Deadline
While CIPE-coordinated internships span a wide range of fields, we invite and support student-sourced internships that may be better aligned with individual interests. If you are interested in working with a particular organisation and wish to source for your own internship, CIPE is available to help you review your application materials or refine your target approach. Grants for self-sourced internships are equivalent to funding for CIPE-sponsored internships and are meant to co-fund the costs of living during an underpaid/unpaid internship. CIPE will provide funding on a competitive basis to a limited number of self-sourced internships. Applications are now open and due on 1 Feb 2019. For more information, please visit our website at https://bit.ly/cipe-ssif.

Looking for an Internship for Summer 2019?
Every year, CIPE coordinates internships with employers who are seeking student interns for 8-12 weeks over the summer vacation period (May - July). New opportunities are being added every week in a wide range of roles and industries so be sure to check Symplicity frequently. Since interviews are often scheduled with a quick turnaround time, we recommend being prepared to be called for interviews immediately. You can better prepare yourself by completing at least one Mock Interview through Symplicity and predicting questions to come by using the 1-page interview guide here. Please note that all CIPE-coordinated internships are paid either by the employer or college funds, in order to allow you to pursue opportunities based on your academic/professional interests rather than based on stipends received. Questions? Contact the Career Services team!

Info Session: MSc in Urban Science, Policy and Planning at Singapore University of Technology and Design (SUTD)
Learn about the new Master of Science programme at SUTD - a unique, hands-on combination of social science and data science to educate the next generation of urban researchers, analysts and practitioners. The info-session will be led by faculty from the Lee Kuan Yew Centre for Innovative Cities and SUTD's Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences (HASS) cluster:

- Date: Thursday, 24 January
- Time: 12:00 noon - 1:00pm
- Venue: Saga Private Dining Room
- RSVP: Symplicity

Are you interested in bioethics or urban sustainability?
01 February 2019 is the deadline for our special academic programme partnerships: the Yale Summer Institute in Bioethics and the Global Citizenship Program in Urban Environmental Sustainability. For more information, visit this page.

Are you interested in creative writing, poetry, playwriting or journalism?
01 February 2019 is the deadline to apply for the Writing Fellowship Programme that supports students to attend an intensive writing workshop over 2-4 weeks. For more information, visit this page.

Are you interested in doing research this summer?
15 February 2019 is the deadline to apply for the Summer Research Programme and the Yale College Dean’s Research Fellowship. For more information, visit this page.
Are you interested in graduate school after Yale-NUS?
Book an appointment with a CIPE advisor to discuss the process, timeline and ways to position yourself for success as a candidate.

> If interested in graduate business school or academic fellowships such as the Rhodes, Gates-Cambridge and Knight-Hennessy, please contact Mr Paul Wilt.
> If interested in graduate law school or medical school, please contact Ms Nilanjana Pal.
> If interested in all other graduate programs, please contact Ms Zhana Sandeva.

---

For Class of 2021

Semester 1 Study Abroad Information Session
Applications to study abroad in Semester 1 of AY 2019-20 are due on Sunday, 10 February, at 5:00pm. Join us at the upcoming info session to learn about Semester 1 study abroad opportunities and the application process. Pizza will be served!

Date: Tuesday, 22 January
Time: 12 noon - 1:00pm
Venue: Tan Chin Tuan Lecture Theatre

---

On-Campus Opportunities

On-Campus Opportunities
Faculty and departments across campus advertise many part-time Student Associate positions, where you can assist them with campus tours, emceeing, social media and website management, web development, event planning and publicity, research in various disciplines, photography, videography and many more. Peak hiring periods are the start of every semester and the end of Sem 2. To see the latest available positions, visit Symplicity and search for positions by filtering for “Position Type – Student Associate”.

---

What We're Reading

This week, we’re reading reflections by former and current students. Alum and current journalist Tee Zhou’s piece in the Straits Times on Singapore’s colonial heritage is timely with the 200th anniversary of Stamford Raffles arrival on Singapore’s shores just over a week away. Current student Harrison Linder’s observations in Today on the culture of achievement and success is thought-provoking.

---

Email: cipe@yale-nus.edu.sg
Website: https://cipe.yale-nus.edu.sg/